GLEN ECHO PARK.

Thousands of park fans who during the past week stayed away from Glen Echo because daily showers seemed to try to set a new record for the approval of the spectators every evening accomplishment that ever added to his fame as a screen star, plus a few new examples of interesting, pugilistic prowess and alertness in the handling of a formidable brace of six-shooters. The skill with which he visualizes a convincing and further showing of the same picture at the Apollo today.

The bill is completed by an assortment of shorter reels and orchestral accompaniment. The new picture, "The Challenge of Chance," starring Jess Willard, the heavyweight champion of the world, who is to defend his title against Jack Dempsey Friday, presents the big fellow in a drama of Western life that for fast action, real honest-to-goodness fight scenes and romantic adventure surpasses anything of a like dramatic nature that has been shown on the screen for some time.
